5. Documentation

To enrol in a New Zealand tertiary education organisation, you must prove evidence of citizenship and/or permanent residency.

International students must produce their passport and a visa that is valid for undertaking study in New Zealand.

Domestic students must provide one of the followings:

- Birth certificate with place of birth stated as New Zealand, Cook Islands, Tokelau, or Niue.
- New Zealand passport.
- Australian passport.
- A statement of Whakapapa, including date of birth, countersigned by a kaumatua.
- Certificate of citizenship or letter of confirmation.
- Proof of New Zealand or Australian Permanent Residency.

You can bring the original documentation to the reception desk, alternatively please provide a certified copy. This means a photocopy of your original document, signed as being a true and accurate copy by a Justice of the Peace (JP), Barrister or Solicitor, Notary Public, Court Register or Deputy Registrar, Member of Parliament, Land Transport New Zealand, Public Trust, or local authority employee designated for this purpose. When a student is in a remote community and unable to access a person listed in the Oaths and Declarations Act, a member of the New Zealand Police, school principal, minister of religion, or general practitioner is acceptable.

On arrival at Eastwest College, international students must bring their passport with them to orientation day so it can be photocopied and verified for academic records.

Please note that your name, date of birth and residency as entered on this enrolment will be included in the National Student Index, and may be used in an Authorised Information Matching programme with the New Zealand Birth Register.

19. Important Information

a	Code of Practice of Pastoral Care for International Students	Eastwest College of Intercultural Studies is a foundation member of and has agreed to observe and be bound by the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students published by the New Zealand Minister of Education. Copies of the Code are available on request from this institution or from the New Zealand Ministry of Education website.
b	Immigration	Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available through the New Zealand Immigration Service, and can be viewed on their website.
c	Fees and refunds	Withdrawals within 10 working days of course commencement, fees will be refunded in full less accommodation charges where applicable. If a student withdraws after 10 working days and within 40 calendar days of course commencement, the refund will consist of the unexpired portion of fees paid (calculated as the number of whole weeks until the end of the semester as a percentage of the total weeks within that semester) less an administration fee of $500. Students who withdraw after 40 calendar days from the commencement of the semester will not receive any refund of fees for that semester. All semesters paid for but not commenced will be refunded in full.
d	Eligibility for Health Services	Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly-funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website.
e	Accident Insurance	The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident partial insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website.
f	Medical and travel insurance	All international students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. Please contact finance@eastwest.ac.nz for assistance to arrange appropriate insurance.
