22. Application Process Terms and Procedures

Eastwest College of Intercultural Studies is registered as a private training establishment by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority under the provisions of the Education Act 1989 and its subsequent amendments.

Proof of Identity

To enrol in a New Zealand tertiary education organisation, you must prove evidence of citizenship and/or permanent residency.

International students must produce their passport and a visa that is valid for undertaking study in New Zealand. On arrival at Eastwest College, they must bring their passport with them to orientation day so it can be photocopied and verified for academic records.

Domestic students must provide one of the following:

- Birth certificate with place of birth stated as New Zealand, Cook Islands, Tokelau, or Niue
- New Zealand passport
- Australian passport
- A statement of Whakapapa, including date of birth, countersigned by a kaumatua
- Certificate of citizenship or letter of confirmation
- Proof of New Zealand or Australian Permanent Residency

You can bring the original documentation to the reception desk. Alternatively, please provide a certified copy. A certified copy is a photocopy of your original document, signed as being a true and accurate copy by a Justice of the Peace (JP), Barrister or Solicitor, Notary Public, Court Register/Deputy Registrar, or Member of Parliament. When a student is in a remote community and unable to access a person listed in the Oaths and Declarations Act, a member of the New Zealand Police, school principal, minister of religion, or general practitioner is acceptable.

Important Information

a. Pastoral Care of International Students – Eastwest College of Intercultural Studies is an approved signatory and has agreed to observe and be bound by Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016, which replaced the 2010 Code of Practice. The Code of Practice is available and can be downloaded from the New Zealand Qualification Authority website.

b. Immigration – Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available through Immigration New Zealand, and can be viewed on their website.

c. Eligibility for Health Services – Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly-funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website.

d. Accident Insurance – The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident partial insurance for all New Zealand citizens and residents, as well as for temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website.

e. Medical and Travel Insurance – All international students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. Please contact finance@eastwest.ac.nz for assistance to arrange appropriate insurance.

f. Recognition of Prior Learning – If you have completed Bible College or Seminary courses for which you seek credits transfer, please contact office@eastwest.ac.nz for an application for cross credits of prior learning.

Declaration

a. Privacy – Eastwest College of Intercultural Studies collects and stores information from this form to comply with the requirements of the Ministry of Education (student statistical returns), New Zealand Qualifications Authority (Record of Learning registration and Unit Standard outcomes), Tertiary Education Commission (funding returns, monitoring), Industry Training Organisations (funding and academic outcomes), Ministry of Social Development (confirmation of enrolment and academic outcomes), Inland Revenue Department (student loan interest rebate), New Zealand Immigration (if you are not a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident), and agencies who support particular students through scholarships and prizes, payment of fees, or other awards (if you are a recipient of one of these awards). The information is also used to select students for qualifications, to manage internal administrative processes, for internal reporting, and to measure the relevance of Eastwest College's qualifications. Information about students may be supplied to, and sought from, other educational institutions, for the purpose of verifying academic records.

When required by law, Eastwest College releases information to Government agencies such as the New Zealand Police, Department of Justice, Ministry of Social Development, Statistics New Zealand, and the Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC).

Your personal details (name, date of birth, and residency) as entered on this application form will be included in the National Student Index, managed by the Ministry of Education, and may be used in an Authorised Information Matching programme with the New Zealand Birth Register.

In signing this application form, you authorise such disclosure on the understanding that Eastwest College will observe the general conditions governing the release of information, as set out in the Privacy Act 1993, the Education Act 1989, and other relevant legislation. You may see any information held about you and amend any errors in that information. To do so, contact the Faculty Officer.

b. Fees – In signing this application form, you undertake to pay all fees as they become due and to meet any late fees and collection charges associated with debt recovery, and you give Eastwest College authorization to provide details to the Trustees who administer the Public Trust account for student fees. Eastwest College's policy on withdrawal and refund of fees may be obtained from the College office.

c. Rules – In signing this application form, you undertake to comply with the published rules and policies of Eastwest College of Intercultural Studies with regard to attendance, withdrawal, academic integrity and progress, standard of dress, health and safety, behaviour, and use of information to administer the tertiary education systems.
